

REGIONAL SEMINARS

ADA Building & Infrastructure Seminar

This half day training is designed to cover the ADA requirements for building accessibility along with key components that City governments should consider when reviewing and/or implementing their ADA compliance. The following is a list of topics that will be examined with this half-day training.

- ADA law and what you need to know
- Program accessibility ADA Title II vs Barrier Removal ADA Title III
- Working with ADA Standards for Accessibility
- New vs existing building requirements
- Building alterations
- Infrastructure access and the Public Rights of Way Guidelines (PROWAG)
- Establishing accessible routes
- Recreational facilities
- Shared-use paths

DATES & LOCATIONS

MARCH 13

Denver

CIRSA Training Room
3665 Cherry Creek N Drive
Denver, CO 80209

APRIL 17

Cedaredge

Cedaredge Civic Center
140 NW 2nd Street
Cedaredge, CO 81413

JUNE 26

Basalt

Rocky Mountain Institute
22830 Two Rivers Road
Basalt, CO 81621

REGISTRATION: 7:30 AM • TRAINING: 8:00 AM - 12:00 PM

To register, click on the location links above or email eileenc@cirsa.org.

- Beverages will be provided.
- The cost of this seminar is FREE for members, but there is limited space, so registration is required.

PRESENTED BY: ED NEUBERG

Prior to his consulting work, Ed was the ADA Coordinator for the City of Arvada (CO), and before that the ADA Manager for Denver's Regional Transportation District (RTD). Ed also worked for the City of Denver as Director of the Denver Office of Disability Rights and the City's ADA Coordinator. Ed has been involved with ADA implementation for over 30 years. He has experience implementing ADA Titles I, II, & III, along with DOT/FTA requirements for transportation. Ed is a member of numerous boards and commissions which focus on the ADA, disability rights, and community acknowledgment and awards. Ed is a certified ADA Coordinator and has been a presenter at the 2010 -2023 National ADA Symposiums. He is a Member of the Rocky Mt. ADA Leadership Network, Board member National ADA Coordinators, Certified ADA Trainer and has a B.S. degree in Education from Colorado State University.

