PRESENTED BY

LARIMER COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE DEPUTY CHRIS SMITH

Chris has 13 years of experience as a deputy with the Larimer County Sheriff's Office and five years as its ADA Coordinator. In 2021, the Colorado Attorney General appointed him to the Commission on Improving First Responder Interactions with People with Disabilities, where he was chosen as chair by other commission members. His focus is on improving law enforcement interactions with people with disabilities, combining his law enforcement experience and expertise in the ADA. He is recognized as a leading expert in the field among agencies all over the country, as well as disability rights advocates, with his presentations on the topic being highly regarded and delivered nationwide.
